Seconds at Tea Time, Why Not?

The Langham Afternoon Tea with Wedgwood Offers Guests the Unique Option of Seconds – or even Thirds of the Their Favourite Tea Time Treat

February 2016.... Sometimes one miniature salted caramel and macadamia crunchy tart is not enough. For when just a single passionfruit and mango macaron doesn't satiate the appetite, The Langham, Melbourne offers guest a novel concept: a replenishment service.

Now guests can have more of their favourite scones and fresh cream and jam or squeeze in one more strawberry choux pastry with citrus cream.

The Langham, Melbourne's traditional afternoon teas are served in the hushed and relaxed surrounding of the hotel's Aria Bar & Lounge. The hotel's dedicated pastry kitchen is renowned for their innovation and use of fresh, local produce.

The Langham Afternoon Tea with Wedgwood is a decadent experience including Wedgwood specialty teas served in tailor-made "Langham Rose" Wedgwood china accompanied by a three tiered cake stand laden with a selection of savoury sandwiches such as smoked salmon, cucumber and horseradish crème fraiche, free range ham with tomato chutney and English cheddar, avocado, watercress, micro basil and heirloom tomato salad and free range chicken with chives and lemon thyme as well as fruit and buttermilk scones with clotted cream and strawberry and rose petal preserve.
