Kick Off 2016 in Style at The Langham, Melbourne

December 2015.... New Year's Eve is just over a week away and people are starting to seek out the best spots to celebrate the beginning of 2016. A top tip from The Langham, Melbourne is that the hotel boasts some of the best views of the fireworks. Whether revellers choose to clink Champagne flutes at Alto on the top floor of the hotel or be close to the action at Melba Restaurant, diners will be able to enjoy a generous dinner to fuel a night of dancing at Alto or a virtual endless feast accompanied by live music and dancing at Melba Restaurant.

For those that select to be amongst the crowds, there is even an early dinner sitting at Melba from 5pm until 8pm.

There are also a limited number of accommodation packages still available that including dinner for two at either Alto or Melba as well as a host of special extras.

Melba Restaurant

Scheduled with families in mind or those that wish to bar hop late until the night, Melba's 5pm dinner sitting is ideal for those wishing to dine early.

The New Year's Eve menu features plenty of fresh seafood including marinated scallops, King prawns, oysters, blue swimmer crab, green lip mussels, Moreton Bay bugs, a wide range of sushi and scallop fettuccine. There's also cider and honey roast leg of lamb, ginger stir fry crab, a selection of Indian dishes and for dessert there is a bounty of brownies, tarts, éclairs, waffles, ice creams and of course, Melba's famous chocolate fountain.

Adults are $199.00 and children are $125.00 or $225.00 per adult and $150.00 per child for a guaranteed window table.
